

Robin L. Cook has lived in Lee County for the past 39 years. She met her husband Doug 38 years ago, when they were both working on Sanibel, and in 2010, they moved to the island. In 2022, Cook joined Suncoast Prosperity Advisors, a division of Suncoast Equity Management (SEM) on Sanibel as a Sr. Prosperity Advisor. Cook has enjoyed a long career in the financial services arena, specializing in comprehensive wealth management services for high-net-worth individuals, families, foundations, and nonprofits. Prior to joining SEM, Cook served eight years as Executive Vice President of Wealth Services at The Sanibel Captiva Trust Company.

Cook stays involved in the community as a member of various island organizations. She currently serves on the board for The Ding Darling National Wildlife Society and has served on boards for the Captiva Historical Society, Gulf Care Inc., and The Cape Coral Community Foundation. She is a member of the SanCap Rotary and the Sanibel Captiva Business Women's Association. The American Business Women's Association recognized her as Sanibel Captiva American Business Woman of The Year in 2013.

Cook completed the American Bankers Association Graduate School of Banking program at the University of Florida in 1999, Certified Wealth Strategist (CWS®) certification in 2013, and Certified Trust Fiduciary Advisor (CTFA®) in 2021. She earned her Series 65 Investment Advisor Representative license in 2022 and is a graduate of the "Leadership Cape Coral" program.
